

The Military History Society of NSW Inc.
presents

MS DOROTHEA PREIS

Richard III and Plantagenet Societies

The Leicester Dig: the conclusion of a 500 year old mystery

'The Leicester Dig: the conclusion of a 500 year old mystery' starts with the death of Richard III at the Battle of Bosworth Field, and records what happened to his body afterwards, the dig, and eventually the recent scientific results which proved that King Richard had finally been found.

Saturday, 16 March, 2013, 2pm
Building 113, Victoria Barracks, Paddington

This is a FREE event, but numbers are restricted – RSVP by Wednesday, 13
March 2013:

(02) 9660-7225 or 0418-400-825, john.twyford@uts.edu.au or bhow0340@bigpond.net.au